1. Exhibits

● Works of Thirty-six Celebrated Poets

11-12th centuries (Late Heian period), 14 of the 36 poems, Nishi Hongwanji

The oldest collection of the thirty-six celebrated poets' was produced by former-emperor Shirakawa from the 12th Century. The poems were replicated by some of the then greatest calligraphers on elegant decorative paper. The collection was presented by Emperor Gonara in 1549 to Shonyō Monshu, the 10th Hongwanji Head Priest. It represents the great collaboration of art and craftsmanship within an ultimate aesthetic sense from the Heian period. Fourteen of the 36-pieced compilation will be on display during both exhibition sessions.

● Mongolian Boar Hunting

Color on paper, Dimensions: 172.0 x 87.5cm, 17-19th century (Edo period), Nishi Hongwanji

The artwork within the dressing chamber are attributed to one of the leading painters of the Kano school, Watanabe Ryōkei. Popular during the Edo period, hunting scenes were especially favored by the Kano school. The complete scene is painted throughout the panels and walls of the dressing chamber.

● Bokie (Illustrated Biography of Kakunyo)

14-16th century (Period of the Northern and Southern Courts), 2 of 10 scrolls, Nishi Hongwanji

The 10-scrolled collection produced in 1351, illustrates the life of the great-grandson of Shinran, Kakunyo (1270–1351) who is known for transforming the gravesite of Shinran into a Buddhist temple and naming it “Hongwanji.” Bo-ki-e consists of three Chinese characters 慕歸絵 which interprets into a “painting,” expressing the “yearning” for Kakunyo, saddened by his “return” to the Pure Land. Two scrolls from the complete collection will be on display for this occasion.
